

June 23, 2015

The following was distributed to the KYAE listserv.

KYAE's 2015 Outstanding Lesson Winner

WE HAVE A WINNER!

Congratulations, Ashley Gootee, Muhlenberg County!

KYAE's 2015 Outstanding Lesson is

"How Steep Is It?"

Ashley will receive the $500 prize, while each of our finalists (listed below) will receive $100 for their finalist-designated lessons.

These lessons will be featured on our KYAE Lesson Bank, <http://kyaelessons.blogspot.com/>, and in future publications. To access the lessons, click on the Vault and enter kyaeinstructors@gmail.com to log in. The new password for the bank is kyae2015. DO NOT CHANGE THE PASSWORD!

Thanks to all instructors for your hard work and great submissions this year!

Finalist Lessons

Adding Integers.....Anna Adams and Sherry Combs, Boyd County
Analyzing the Effects of Reduce, Reuse, Recycle.....Jackie Robertson, Hancock County
Back It Up-Recognizing How Authors Support Their Arguments...Jackie Robertson, Hancock County
Checkbook Integers ..... Whitney Stroup, Mason County
Ghetto Gettysburg ..... LeeAnn Branham, Greenup County
I Approve This Message ..... Sarah Simpson, Vicki Cline and Donnie Osborn, Martin County
The Shape of Things to Come..... Verinda Rose, Wolfe County
Weekend Getaway .....Julie Hendrix, Powell County
What Footprint Will You Leave?.....Jackie Robertson. Hancock County